

Psalm 102 (Don't Hide Your Face)

See also Revelation 21:3-5

Words and music by Caroline Cobb Smith
and Rachel Wilhelm

♩=110
Dm G Dm G Dm

(piano intro)

1.Oh Lord my

9 Am Em F Dm

God,

don't hide Your face. I am o-ver-

13 Am G F Bb

whelmed with sor-row, so please hear me when I pray. My heart is

17 Am Em E Am Dm

struck down, with-ered like grass in the heat I lie a - wake in bed and I can - not sleep. But

21 Am E7

24 F G C G

You, You are on Your throne; help me to re-mem-ber

28 F G C G

You. One day You will come I know that You re-mem-ber

32 F E7 Dm E(sus4) E Dm Am

me. You hear and You re-mem-ber me. 2.Ash - es, my food,

2

38 Em F Dm Am

tears are my__ drink. A fe-ver burns deep in my bones,

42 G F Bb

I'm for-get - ting__ to eat.__ Oh Lord, please

45 Am Em E Am Dm

look down! Rise up! Have pi - ty__ on me! Oh, let me

49 Am E7

praise You one day for how You res - cued me. Oh

52 F G C G

You, You are on Your throne; help me to re-mem-ber

56 F G C G F

You. One day You will come I know that You re-mem-ber me. You hear and You re-mem - ber me.

61 E7 F

64 G F G

70 F G

Oh my God, I know that You hear my groans. You will not leave me a - lone, You have said that You will come when ev-ery tear You'll

74 F G

78 F G

wipe a - way and ev-ery-one will fear Your name, when all the earth-ly

82 F G

pow - ers fade, You will still re - main. For

86 F G C G

You, You are on Your throne; help me to re-mem-ber

90 F G C

You. One day You will come I

93 G F G

know that You re-mem-ber me. You hear and You re-mem-ber.