

There is a Mountain

Caroline Cobb

$\text{♩} = 70$
E

p There is a

3 A E

mp moun-tain on-ly the lame can climb

6 A E ta-ble on-ly the hun-gry find

9 B(sus4) C#m B A B(sus4) B

beg-gar will have the cur-ren-cy when need is all you need

8^{vb}-----

14 A E

vic-tory on-ly the con-quer-ed gain

17 A E

glo-ry that you get when you give up your name

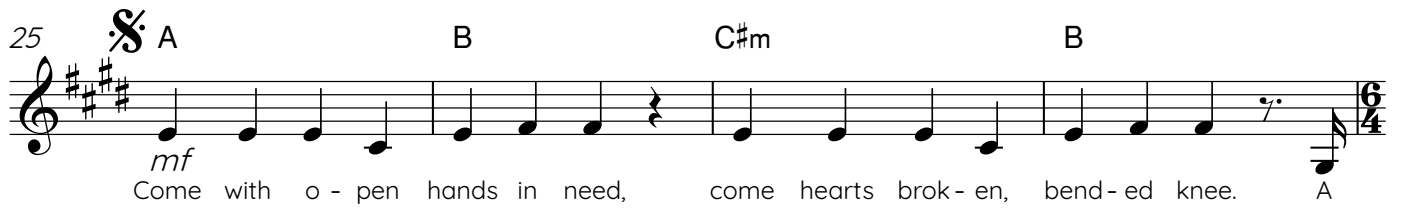

8^{vb}-----
O, the

20 B C#m B A B(sus4) B

peace when you fin-ally yield your fight and sur-ren-der rights

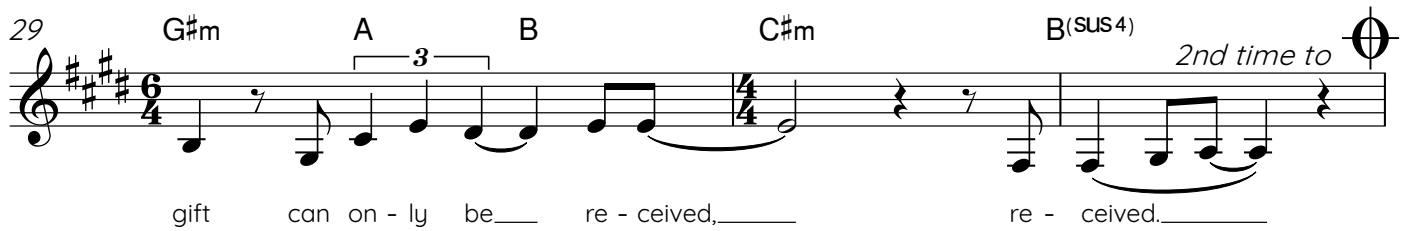

(8)-----

25 mf A B C#m B

Come with o - pen hands in need, come hearts brok - en, bend - ed knee. A

29 G#m A B C#m B(sus4) 2nd time to gift can on - ly be re - ceived, re - ceived.

32 B A E

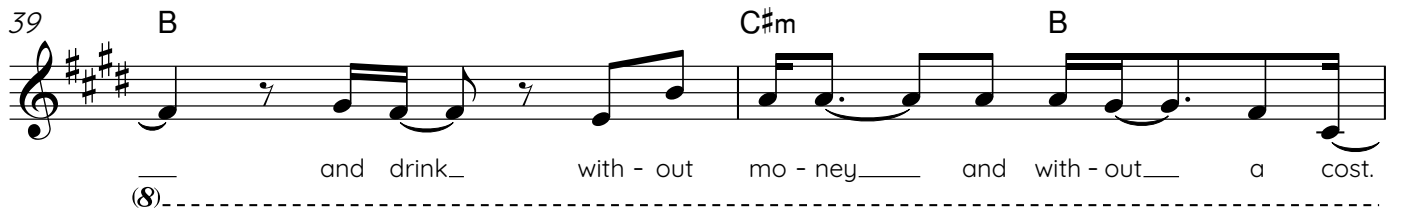

Come to the mount - ain, he car - ries the crip - ple to the feast. Come to the ta - ble, come sit, he has saved you a seat. Come and eat.

36 A E 8^{vb}

39 B C#m B

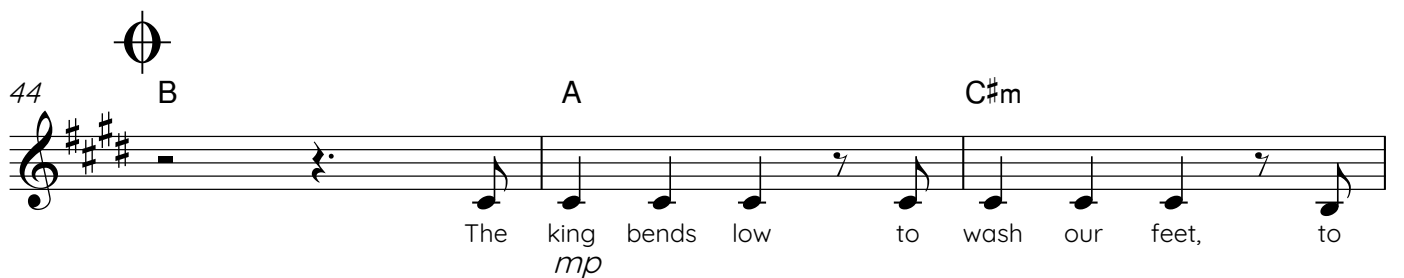

and drink with - out mo - ney and with - out a cost.

41 A B(sus4) B D.S. al Coda

He has paid it on the cross.

44 B A C#m mp

The king bends low to wash our feet, to

47 E B A C#m

give him - self as an of - fer - ing, to lead us home to that wed - ding feast; we

51 E B C#m A taste it now, at last we'll eat of that rich-est food, of that well-aged wine; the

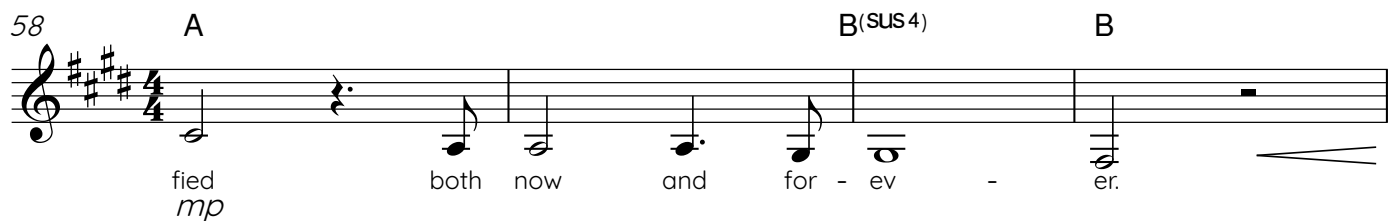

mf

55 E B A C#m B

shroud will lift, our tears he'll dry. Come hun-gry souls, be sa-tis-

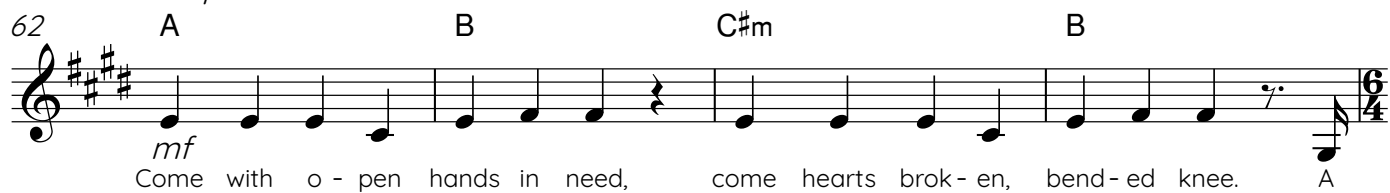

58 A B(sus4) B

fied both now and for-ev-er.

mp

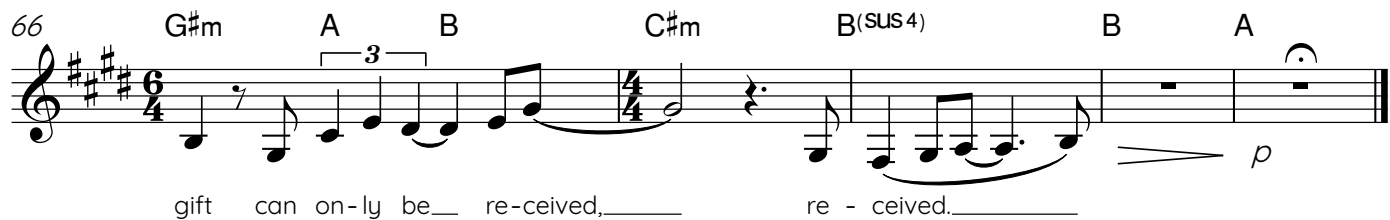

62 A B C#m B

Come with o-pen hands in need, come hearts brok-en, bend-ed knee. A

mf

66 G#m A B C#m B(sus4) B A gift can on-ly be re-ceived, re-ceived.

p