

COME AFTER ME

Words and music by Caroline Cobb / CCLI song # 7170105
Luke 9:23-25 (see Matt 16:24-26, Mark 8:34-38); Phil 3:7-11; Matt 13:44-46; 2 Cor 4:16-18

J = 81, key of C

$\frac{4}{4}$ | A^m | | | |

VERSE 1 C A^m
If you would follow Me / You must lay down your life
F C G
Take up your cross and count as loss / Your glory and your pride
C A^m
The riches of this world / All power and human praise
F C G
Will slip like sand right through your hands / But My love will remain

CHORUS A^m F C G
Come / Come after Me, come after Me
A^m F
Don't lose your life trying to save it / I know it's hard but it's worth it
C G
You'll see / Come after Me

VERSE 2 C A^m
If you would follow Me / My way leads first to death
F C G
But then to life, My risen life / To lasting joy and rest
C A^m
I'm the treasure in the field / You must sell your all to buy
F C G
But the riches there, beyond compare / It makes the cost seem light

_to CHORUS, then BRIDGE

BRIDGE F C A^m F | |
If I am anything, I must be everything / Come after Me
C A^m F | |
If I am anything, I must be everything / Come after Me
C A^m F | |
If I am anything, I must be everything / Come after Me
C A^m F | |
If I am anything, I must be everything / Come after Me
C A^m F | |
If I am anything, I must be everything / Come after Me / Come after Me
