VERSE 1 I don't want to be the rich young man who went away sad
His knuckles white from holding tight to everything he had
I don't want to be that Simon with his pious air
Let me be the broken woman washing Your feet with her tears and her hair

CHORUS 1 I don't want to miss Your heart / No, I don't want to miss out on the main part
So many missed the good news / But I don't want to miss out on the heart of You
No, I don't want to miss it / I don't want to miss Your heart

VERSE 2 Harsh words for the Pharisees who kept the outside clean
Oh, let me be the man in the temple beating his chest saying "Lord, have mercy on me"
You said "Blessed are the poor in spirit, blessed are the ones who mourn
Blessed are the pure and meek who hunger for Me, the kingdom is yours"

_to CHORUS, then BRIDGE

BRIDGE What good is gaining the world if I forfeit my very soul?
What good is money and name if I can't take it when I go?
You don't want my lip service if my heart is far away
You want my all, my everything, not a character I play

CHORUS 2 I don't want to miss Your heart / No, I don't want to miss out on the main part
So many missed the good news / But I don't want to miss out on the heart of You
I don't want to miss Your heart / No, I don't want to miss out on the main part
So many missed the good news / But I don't want to miss out on the heart of You
No, I don't want to miss it / I don't want to miss your heart
I don't want to miss it / I don't want to miss your heart
