THERE WILL BE A DAY (ISAIAH 2) Words and music by Caroline Cobb / CCLI song # 7159412

Isaiah 2:1-5, 11, 17; 25:6-9, 11:9

	CAPO 1 $S = 129, \text{ key of C, original key - } D^b$ $\frac{6}{8} \mathbf{C} \mathbf{F} \mathbf{C} \mathbf{F} $
VERSE 1	C F There will be a day / When the house of God G F C
	Like a mountain o'er the hills / Will be lifted up
	As a river flows / Ever to the sea
	All the nations will flow to Him / Like a living stream
VERSE 2	C F There will be a day / When the Prince of peace G F C
	Will break the bow and sword / And make all wars cease
	And our guns and bombs / Will be melted down
	Into plowshares for the harvest / How we're longing for it now
CHORUS	G A ^m When we'll go to the mountain of God F C
	We'll walk in His ways / We'll look on His face G A ^m
	We'll go to the mountain of God F G
	We'll cast down our pride / And walk in His light
1 st - to VERS	On the mountain of God
2 nd - TAG	: C F : C On the mountain of God
	C F
VERSE 3	There will be a day / And it's drawing near G F C
	When He'll lift the veil of death / And He'll dry our tears
	And with joy we'll go / To His wedding feast
	And His glory will fill up the earth / Like the waters fill the sea
	_to CHORUS, then TAG
